SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. [illegible]

THE PACIFIC STATESMAN [illegible] turned from the [illegible] portant [illegible] with the pe[illegible] the workings [illegible] is that [illegible] should [illegible] concerning the [illegible] of the State [illegible] loyal. Many [illegible] Unionists [illegible] our faith [illegible] that it systematically [illegible] from war and [illegible] deep seated attachment [illegible] bide our time to withdraw [illegible] pact and eventually [illegible] Republic [illegible] tuned in the [illegible] to rival the [illegible] Union. Such ignorance [illegible] claims most highly [illegible] great number of [illegible].

If there is any deeply seated sentiment pervading the common heart [illegible] people of the [illegible] Coast, it is the devotion we feel to the Union, our faith [illegible]—the Government [illegible] our heritage. We have proved it often [illegible] in giving every electoral vote of the Pacific [illegible] Lincoln and Johnson, and to support [illegible] the war to subdue the rebellion. California, Oregon and new born Nevada [illegible] a word of cheer across the Continent, that should [illegible] glorious assurance, doubly sure and at least [illegible] suspicion in the soul of every [illegible].

We will venture to say that the idea of a Pacific Republic is not even [illegible] in Oregon. That such [illegible] a few miserable worn out political hacks [illegible] years since may be a possibility, but the voice of the people has since then been often heard at the ballot box and always the same in its loud [illegible] assurance of support of the Government, and in opposition to treason either there or here.

Let it be listened to with faith [illegible], for as we vote we will act, and whatever length of time may be required to wind up the rebellion we intend to the last to remain true to the flag and the government [illegible].

DAILY NEWSPAPERS.—The last issue of the Daily Oregon Statesman announces its discontinuance, and contains the following as part of its valedictory notice:

With this number the publication of the Daily Statesman ceases. Commenced as an experiment about four months ago it soon became apparent that its publication could only be [illegible] at a severe loss to the proprietor, but the interest all felt in the events of the few [illegible] preceding the election of the 8th November—the war, the election, the Legislature—[illegible] demand [illegible] speedy means of disseminating news than a weekly paper afforded. We determined therefore to continue it bearing the loss until we were able to give the result of the Presidential election; but we cannot go on longer. Our [illegible] receipts [illegible] the daily edition have never [illegible] the cost of telegraphic dispatches, [illegible] the cost of paper, type-setting, press work, &c., a loss [illegible].

The publication of a daily paper as [illegible] forth, is accompanied with very heavy expense, especially when furnishing the amount of telegraphic news that the OREGONIAN contains, to say nothing of the large amount of original and miscellaneous reading [illegible] in our columns. The Statesman's dispatches were not [illegible] the average over half as full as our own, and of course were much less expensive.

The developement of our State, and the rapid growth in population and [illegible] of Portland itself have made the publication of a Daily paper at this point a necessity, and despite all the difficulties recounted by the Statesman we have for several years striven, not to make the DAILY OREGONIAN a source of profit [illegible] attain a position adapted to the wants of the times and become equal to the [illegible] as well as the political circumstances of [illegible] country.

Notwithstanding the great expense of receiving telegraphic news, we hope [illegible] to increase the fullness and value of our report [illegible] the telegraph lines shall extend in every direction, and shall stop short of nothing less than offering the people of Oregon [illegible] a first class newspaper [illegible] their attention and support. The weekly States [illegible].

POSTAL ARRANGEMENTS.—We continually hear complaints of the [illegible] the Willamette valley, but especially [illegible] hear fault found with [illegible] of the mountains. We mail [illegible] to Umatilla, for instance, [illegible] very irregular. The [illegible] the Dalles where we have many [illegible] could get many more if the OREGONIAN could travel the route as quickly as [illegible] the fact is that [illegible] time the mail takes—[illegible] lodged on the way—[illegible] cease our paper, though he may [illegible] able to travel the road himself in [illegible] that time. The stage goes from Umatilla to Walla Walla [illegible] in five days; two days more [illegible] would make seven days [illegible] or Boise cities; and the OREGONIAN [illegible] supply numerous readers [illegible] the latest news [illegible] there, if it could be carried there [illegible] time.

We are of course interested in this matter ourselves. We pay large [illegible] readers in proportion [illegible] ested than the people [illegible] Territories [illegible] ing something may [illegible] dy the difficulty and give us access to their rich and growing country [illegible].

THE STAGE [illegible] Culver of [illegible] passed through [illegible] saw Mr W R Park [illegible] who was [illegible] of a [illegible] time of the robbery [illegible] tand stage [illegible] Park proved [illegible] supposed to [illegible] quite low [illegible].

Up Country News

[illegible] Charles [illegible] W. T. McMillen [illegible] J. H. Brad[illegible] [illegible]

[illegible]

Father [illegible] of Cœur d'Alene Mission, one of the [illegible] Missionaries of the Pacific coast, arrived in [illegible] a few days ago to procure [illegible] and departed for his home [illegible] yesterday. Although the frosts of many winters have passed over the head of Father [illegible], he appears hale and hearty and [illegible] his noble work [illegible] many years to come. May his shadow never grow less.

The two men mentioned in the [illegible] as having escaped from the [illegible] jail and who were subsequently recaptured and taken back to Florence, have since had their trial and been sentenced—[illegible] Wilson to five years confinement in the penitentiary, the other [illegible] Goodwin to one year's imprisonment. They were brought down on Tuesday last by Sheriff Solon Hall. We suppose they will be taken to Lapwai.

A few days since we published the painful rumor that a large train had been cut off by Indians between [illegible] Bend and [illegible], and all in charge [illegible] massacred including a former Indian Agent, Major Owen. Since that time, we have made diligent inquiry concerning the matter, and now believe the report to have been without foundation.

During his tour to the Boise and Owyhee country, Gov. [illegible] has effected results of a highly gratifying character among such Indian tribes as he personally visited or held communication with. It is believed that they will insure the safe and unmolested transit of the mails in future from Salt Lake City through to the western terminus of the route. His negotiations with these tribes may save to the Government thousands of dollars and exempt our gallant volunteers from severe hardships, as some of them are powerful and have been very troublesome, and it had been proposed to use military force against them. At Owyhee, His Excellency made a treaty securing good behavior from the savages almost to the Utah line; while he ascertained from runners that the Wik[illegible] and Bannacks, of the extreme southern portion, [illegible] are desirous to treat in the Spring. The Spokanes and Cœur d'Alenes in the north, are peaceable and well disposed. Through the [illegible] excellent management our Indian relations are highly satisfactory on every side.

LAWS PUBLISHED.—We have published during the week the following acts:

An act to prevent Indians and half bloods from unlawfully running at large, &c.

An act regulating the Treasury Department.

FIRE AT SAN FRANCISCO.—A destructive fire occurred Nov 16th, at the [illegible] used as a riding school by Herrman & L[illegible] on Market street between [illegible] and [illegible] and running through to [illegible] street. The buildings burned were the riding academy, causing [illegible] owners of probably $10 000, and the carriage factory, blacksmith and paint shops [illegible] Co. on the west side, whose loss will be about $4 000. Two frame dwellings, [illegible] Mr Fleishaker and Mrs Hearst were nearly destroyed, and the contents badly damaged. The loss of the former was about $[illegible] and that of the latter about $500. The buildings were owned by Mr Rosenbaum, who estimates his loss at about $5,000. The loss of Mr Green [illegible] will amount to $500. The entire loss will [illegible] from $20 000 to $25 000.

THE NEW CITY CHARTER.—This document, under which our city government is at present administered, is a very elaborate instrument, and as no provision has been made for its immediate publication, and as the mass of our people are eager to see and read it, we will endeavor to lay it before the readers of the MORNING OREGONIAN in the form of a supplement at an early day in the coming week. One of the best features of the new Charter is, that it provides the city with a good government. No charter, however perfect otherwise, can be productive of good to the community, unless it provides the means to secure a competent and stable city government to administer it. Under the old Charter the government was practically in the hands of the nine Councilmen, elected annually, and who, by the time they come to understand their business, and agree upon a plan of action in relation to our internal affairs, went out in a body to be succeeded by some other raw hands, and so on continually. Beyond levying taxes, paying bills, and furnishing a convenient test of temporary popularity, the election of Councilmen served but little purpose. The provisions of the new Charter for improving the streets are ample and clear. Some few persons complain of a want of laxity in this particular. Such would doubtless be better pleased with a Charter that would peremptorily require the streets to be improved, but for fear of hurting somebody's feelings, or by some remote possibility affecting some widow woman, would leave a rat hole for every man to crawl out of, if he was not voluntarily disposed to obey it. This new instrument, we are of opinion, will not be found so rigorous, but that its provisions can be easily complied with, and it will tend to very materially increase the interests and appearance of our city, upon which we are all dependant.

COMPLAINTS AGAINST DANGEROUS PERSONS.—We receive complaints nearly every day, concerning dangerous practices of dangerous parties, and instances are no doubt frequent in the city where society is outraged, but we have not the power to change the aspect of affairs unless we recommend the prompt interference of the officers, and condemn any neglect on their part which it is justly our province to do. Last evening a man created a frightful sensation on the streets, and endangered the lives of people by brandishing a revolver, shooting, defying, etc. He was under the protection of a citizen who should be ashamed of himself, and was let run for some length of time, the officer who was knowing to it thinking perhaps he would soon be got out of the way. But he kept up his threatening menaces until he was arrested and locked up by City Marshal Hoyt, assisted by Deputies Foreman and Townsend. He made a strong effort, as he had previously determined, to resist the process, but as officer Townsend had the "drop" on him he succumbed, and in spite of the abuse heaped upon them by his "friend," who is also under arrest, was marched off to jail. He hails from Polk county, and we learn his name is A. H. Whitley. He may be a "Chief" of his tribe, like the lamented "Stock" of Deschutes notoriety, but Portland is the wrong place for him to exercise that prerogative of character. His defiance of law, order, officers, decency, and the well being of community, should be considered aggravating circumstances, and we hope to see all such cases meet with the fullest extent of the law.

NEW GOLD AND SILVER MINING COMPANIES.—The stock holders in the following Gold and Silver Mining Companies yesterday held meetings in this city and elected Directors as follows:

Alabama—J. C. Hawthorne, J. A. Chapman, G. L. Curry, Jas. B. Stephens, A. M. Loryea, A. D. Fitch.

Ophir of Idaho—A. C. Ripley, Geo. L. Curry, L. R. Martin, P. G. Stewart, C. H. Lafrabee.

War Eagle—E. W. Tracy, H. C. Leonard, Geo. L. Curry, H. F. Block, L. F. Grover.

At a meeting of the Directors of the first named company J. C. Hawthorne was elected President, J. A. Chapman Vice President, and Ben. L. Norden Secretary. The Alabama, Ophir of Idaho and War Eagle are three well known and rich ledges situated in Owyhee county, Idaho Territory, and the ground owned by these incorporators is discovery ground, except in the case of the War Eagle, extensions of which belonging to the company, are fully equal to the discovery claim. Disinterested persons, who have been on the spot assure us that the work done on these ledges has proven them to be very valuable. Specimens can be seen at the office of Gov. Curry, one of our well known citizens, who acts as agent for these and other incorporations at Owyhee.

A MAN OVERBOARD.—A. L. Brown, Esq., of Walla Walla, member elect to the Legislature of Washington Territory, made a misstep early yesterday morning, when going on board the steamer for Monticello, and had a narrow escape for it; but being, as he says, "a good swimmer," saved his bacon; and as he was rescued without serious damage from the cold bath, and considers his walking off the "platform" of "no political significance," we have only to sympathise with him over the loss of numberless charters, divorces and bills, and cannot think that his devotion to any fair one led him into the chuck; don't believe for a moment that he was trying to drown his despair, and congratulate him that Greely like, he "saved the umbrella."

CIRCUIT COURT.—In the cause of the State vs. James Thompson, yesterday, a verdict of "assault with intent to commit murder" was rendered and defendant fined $400, to stand committed until paid. [Here is a chance for some chiv. to get a "contraband" cheap—$400 in "greenbacks" will take him out.] Sundry indictments against venders of liquor, for keeping open Saloons and selling on Sunday, were disposed of, the parties each fined $10 and costs. To-day the first cause for trial is that of the State vs. McMillen, grand larceny, at 9 o'clock A. M.

FELL OUT OF BED.—An occupant of one of the numerous lodging houses in this city appeared at the rear door of a store, beneath his apartment, a few nights since, in sad habiliment, and his wants being interrogated, revealed the fact, as he said he had "fell out of bed," that his descent was a long one: from the hall door of a second story to the wet and slippery roof of a wood-shed, thence to the ground. His want of dress, and pitiful look entitled him to commiseration from the clerk he had so abruptly accosted, and he returned to his chamber a frightened somnambulist.

A DISTINGUISHED TRAVELER.—Lord Shelly, one of the most distinguished tourists of Europe, visited this city during the week, en route to Victoria. He crossed the country from St. Paul, Minnesota, by way of Fort Benton, with numerous attendants, and expressed himself much pleased with that portion of our domain, as affording such an excellent field for adventure. He remained in Portland but a few hours, the guest of Mr. S. N. Arrigoni.

THANKSGIVING.—The Alcalde says: Thursday morning Thanksgiving services were held in the several churches of this city, and collections were taken in behalf of the Christian Commission. At the Methodist church the congregation was very good, notwithstanding the rain, and the collection exceeded $100, $25 of which was in currency.

REMOVAL.—Prof. H. Sinclaim has removed his Piano and Music Store to one door north of the Post Office on Front street. He has received a number of fine instruments, additions to his stock, and also has the new Cabinet Organs and Melodeons of Messrs. Mason & Hamlin for sale.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Three cases of drunk and disorderly conduct were preferred before Judge McCoy yesterday, and disposed of as follows: Wm. Gladin, fined $10 and costs, paid. Walter Wilson fined $5 and costs, paid. Antoine Sevone committed to jail two days.

THE 9th, 19th and 29th days of every month have been adopted in San Francisco as the time of departures for steamships North. The vessel of the 19th comes by us via Victoria. Allowing that the Sierra Nevada sailed in accordance with this arrangement, she should arrive to-night.

FOR CORVALLIS.—The P. T. Company will dispatch a steamer from Canemah for Corvallis, connecting with the Rival, Capt. Baughman, from this city to-day.

A RAINY DAYS' MUSINGS.—Could we have been led down that stair case in Cairo, as was Radziville, when it was manifest to him that there were eight thousand Camels engaged in the bringing of pure, healthful water to its denizens, or even at Calcutta to see the [illegible] sheep-skins, on a hundred naked human forms, filled with the element, we might have been assisted in supposing there was a blessing and a price placed for their endeavors. Poor old Plato would not have a traveler lodge in a city where there was no running water, and Pindar held it as better than gold. Hippocrates it was who said water would cure the greatest malady of humanity, undoubtedly, but it was to be pure rain, in small drops. Large drops, such as have appeared in our vicinity most of the time for the past twenty four hours would not do, as they held "humors" of a maddening quality, for the confirmation of which see Messrs. Drivers of the "constitutional mud-wagons" upon their arrival from places where there should be a corduroy. It may be that we do not appreciate the pure cold water from the clouds, since we "lay it not," and that it is a blessing, which surely does us good, but it will come down, even in large drops, and every man who is so unfortunate as to get "stuck in the mud" can immediately take a phrensy beneath his umbrella, and gather his wrath to his bosom for consolation.

THEATRICAL.—Thursday evening Mrs. Hayne appeared as "Madeline" in the play of that name. The house was filled, and the audience was quite enthusiastic at her performance. This play is of a more natural, home-like character than has been enacted on the stage here for some time past, and as a consequence was a greater success than many others. The audience was at times deeply effected by the personation, by Mrs. Hayne, of the mother. Her love for her infant, her despair at parting from it, and joy at the recovery of it, spoke the woman and the mother as well as the artist, and we will venture to say that her powerful acting more than once drew tears to many eyes. The principal performers were much better supported than usual, as the result of a well selected play, suited to the feelings of the audience as well as adapted to the limited appliances furnished by the inconvenient stage and theater. No voice can be used with good effect within that building. As a sounding gallery it is abominable, and the stage is covered by what might be called an uncomfortable building for a barn. The audience—and the actors still more—deserve better accommodations for a theater. Last evening, we understand, Shakspeare's play of "As You Like It" was performed in a very excellent manner, but we were not able to be present.

PREACHING IN THE GERMAN LANGUAGE.—Rev. G. H. Schmidt, of the Evangelical Protestant Church, will preach again, if God permits, next Sabbath at 10 o'clock A. M. at the Court House.

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "Slight Cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS PARTICUlarly requested to the above favorite brand of Oysters. Messrs. DANISH [illegible] Denmark [illegible] town of Elsinore [illegible] nothing remarkable [illegible] Fredensborg [illegible] in the 14th century [illegible] English [illegible] Little [illegible] Hunter," for having [illegible] that he should not desire Heaven if [illegible] were left to him.

WE have frequently heard of the power of the imagination, but the following instance, which lately occurred in France, affords a novel illustration. A respectably dressed man of about fifty called on a man at St. Etienne, and said, "I am a builder by trade, and in making my contracts am sometimes obliged to drink rather too freely. Finding myself lately indisposed in consequence of these excesses, I was advised to apply to M. X——, of Croix, who had, I was told, a secret of sovereign efficacy in such cases. I followed the recommendation and took the remedy, which consisted of a white powder done up in a small packet; but instead of being cured I find I am poisoned, and I have been told this morning that the remedy is arsenic. Yes, sir," continued the speaker with great violence, "I am poisoned, and already to day I had one violent attack." While speaking his countenance changed, his breathing became heavy, and throwing himself back in a chair he exclaimed, "I am going to have another—I am dying—help! help!" The doctor went toward him and found that he was dead. A post mortem examination proved that the man died from paralysis of the pectoral muscles, brought on by violent emotion produced by a diseased imagination. No trace of poison existed. The white powder was analyzed and turned out not to be arsenic, but simply sugar of milk, a completely harmless substance.

THE COARSE ARTS.—"The fine arts do not interest me," said Theodore Parker, "so much as the coarse arts, which feed, clothe, house and comfort a people. I should rather be a great man like Franklin than a Michael Angelo—nay, if I had a son, I should rather see him a great mechanic, who organized use like the late George Stephenson, in England, than a great painter like Rubens, who only copied beauty. In short, I take more interest in a cattle show and feel more sympathy for the Pope's bull than his bulliun. Men talk to me about the absence of art in America. You remember the stuff which M—— used to twaddle forth on that theme, and what transcendental nonsense got delivered from gawky girls and long-haired young men. I tell them we have cattle shows and mechanics' fairs, and shovels and plows, and harrows and saw mills, sewing machines and reaping machines, threshing machines and planing machines. There is not a saw-mill in Rome. I doubt if there is in the Pontifical States."

EFFICACY OF ONIONS.—A writer says: We are often troubled with severe coughs, the results of a cold of long standing, which may turn to consumption and premature death. Hard coughs cause sleepless nights, by a constant irritation in the throat, and a strong effort to throw off offending matter from the lungs. The remedy I propose has been tried by me, and often recommended to others with good results, which is simply to take into the stomach, before retiring at night, a piece of raw onion, after chewing. This esculent, in an uncooked state, is very heating, and tends to collect the water from the lungs and throat, causing instant relief to the patient. Sliced onion, in a raw state, will collect poison from the air, and also from the human system, when taken internally, or externally applied to the arm pits.

CANDOR SOMETIMES IMPRUDENT.—Candor is very much praised as a virtue, but let no one attempt to practice it without discrimination. Everybody has heard of the woman who, having married unhappily, went to an old maid, who had been the intimate friend of her girlhood, and poured out her sorrow without reserve. "I am sorry for you," said the sympathetic spinster—"I am sorry you got married."

"Thank you," retorted the wife, "but I would have you to know that my husband is better than none at all."

EAST-INDIAN [illegible].—A book of East Indian travels, just reviewed in London, says:

A certain number of Europeans marry Indian wives, and the children of the two races are known as Eurasians, or half-castes, and amount to considerable numbers. At the census of 18[illegible] they exceeded the English in the city of Calcutta. In 18[illegible] the Europeans in all India [illegible] military, 25,5[illegible] civilians, and [illegible] women and children.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the Lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED not to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
